

Conditions for the selling and Buying process

1. The investor should be obliged by the laws, regulations & instructions of ISX.
2. The investor is obliged to deliver the bought shares to the intermediary (broker) prior to the completion of the deal in the market.
3. The intermediary (broker) has no right to use the bought shares through the period taken for settlement, without the investor consent.
4. The investor is obliged to pay the broker the sums made by him to cover his obligations to the deal, along with the commission that has been agreed upon by the market.
5. The broker's bureau approved by the market is the official bureau to receive orders of selling and purchasing.
6. Handling all disagreements concerning deals executed within the market is done according to the procedure regulated by the markets specified laws.
7. The investor is obliged to deliver all documents to the broker when selling order is issued.
8. The purchasing investor has the obligation of the company's founding contract.
9. The selling investor has to make commitment that the shares to be sold are not mortgaged, confiscated or detained by force of law.
10. To be obliged by the (19th) act of the stock and shares exchange market regulations, instructions, which states (one single person has no right to give orders of selling or purchasing to more than one intermediary (broker) for one type of shares and in a specific time of exchange).